Parkfields
LLP

In the ever-evolving legal and regulatory landscape, litigation can pose significant threats to an organization's very survival. At Parkfields, our legal practitioners boast extensive expertise in dealing with intricate and high-stakes litigation matters. Our stellar reputation in this field is founded on our proven ability to adeptly navigate our clients through their most pivotal legal challenges.

We excel in swiftly assembling dedicated, integrated, and efficient teams capable of addressing every crucial facet of a client's predicament. With a diverse portfolio of cases spread across multiple jurisdictions and forums, we have successfully managed around 9000 cases over the past three decades, delivering outstanding results. Our clients range from private individuals to corporate giants, and we take pride in our consistent success in representing them effectively throughout the country.

Our Litigation Division comprises an extensive team of approximately 60 dedicated lawyers across our associate offices throughout India. Parkfields is proud to have built a strong presence in almost every state across the country. Our lawyers are admitted to practice across the nation, providing us with a deep-rooted understanding of the Indian legal landscape.

Our legal experts have a rich history of litigation in state courts and the Supreme Court, making us a prominent and respected presence in India's legal sphere.

Parkfields has a storied legacy as one of the first national law firms to establish a presence in India, almost four decades ago. With our associate offices in key locations like Mumbai, Chennai, Bangalore, and Kolkata, we cover the breadth of the nation, ensuring that we are well-equipped to handle complex disputes that may emerge in any Indian jurisdiction, or simultaneously in multiple regions.

At Parkfields, our extensive network of associate offices spans across nearly every state in India. We take immense pride in being a formidable presence in the Indian legal landscape. Our team comprises seasoned lawyers who are well-versed in the intricacies of the Indian legal system.

We serve as dedicated representatives for our clients in every facet of litigation, from leveraging state-of-the-art e-discovery tools to navigating the intricacies of trials. Parkfields has garnered a reputation as a premier litigation firm, with our lawyers consistently securing ground-breaking victories in cases that significantly benefit our clients' interests.

Our arguing counsels often step in to take the reins when cases are at the brink of a hearing, demonstrating our ability to swiftly assemble crisis teams to tackle challenges wherever our clients require support.

In addition to our prowess in trial advocacy, our lawyers are highly experienced in handling appellate matters in state and tribunals across the nation. We are also frequent participants in other forums, including but not limited to the National Companies Law Tribunal, National Companies Law Appellate Tribunal, National Green Tribunal, Competition Commission of India, GST tribunals, and the Serious Fraud Investigation Office, among others. Our team excels in representing clients in proceedings involving various government agencies, such as the Securities and Exchange Board of India, TDSTAT, the Competition Commission of India, and more.

Parkfields brings a wealth of experience to bear on these complex litigation claims, with a diverse portfolio that spans multiple industries, including banking, energy, financial services, insurance, healthcare, manufacturing, mortgage, pharmaceutical, real estate, retail, technology, and telecommunications.

Our expertise in handling expansive and intricate litigations is unrivaled, positioning us as a trusted legal partner for clients across various sectors. We navigate these complex cases with precision and diligence, consistently delivering favorable outcomes for our clients.

Beyond our work on large and complex litigations, Parkfields lawyers are dedicated to serving the broader community through pro bono matters. Our commitment extends from trial matters to even the Supreme Court. We firmly believe in giving back to society by offering our legal expertise to those in need, further exemplifying our commitment to justice and legal excellence.
